The Honorable William Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington DC 20505.

Dear Mr Casey:

It is with great pleasure that I wish to inform you that the Board of Directors of the International Strategic Studies Association has named you as one of the five recipients from around the world of the 1984 Award for Outstanding Contributions to Strategic Progress.

The Board decided upon this unanimously following what has been a dramatic revival of the United States' intelligence capabilities, a strengthening of the institutions of intelligence, and the respect which they now receive within the US policymaking community. This lays the foundation for a stronger America.

Recipients of the 1983 Awards were: British Defence Minister Geoffrey Pattie, Egypt's Field Marshal Abu Ghazala, Senator John Tower, Lt. Gen. Daniel O. Graham, and Singapore Secretary of Defence Philip Yeo. This year's recipients, apart from yourself, are: Jamaican Prime Minister Edward Seaga, Pakistani President Zia ul-Haq, Senator Sam Nunn, and Saudi Arabian Ambassador to the United States Prince Bandar Bin Sultan.

The Awards will be presented at the ISSA Awards Banquet, to be held at the Sheraton-Washington Hotel, Washington DC, March 14, 1984, in conjunction with the big Strategy'84 Conference. Your presence there to receive the Award in person would be a great honor and pleasure for the Association and the several hundred top defense and policy leaders from around the world. A brochure is enclosed which details further the Strategy'84 event and the Award.

ISSA was founded several years ago to promote a greater understanding of strategic issues by professionals involved in policymaking. We feel that your efforts have contributed most dramatically to that process.

Yours most sincerely,

[Signature Box]

President.
